

Local workplaces rally to help the Jimmy Fund

Five Foxboro workplaces are joining Rally Against Cancer to support the Jimmy Fund.

Team Invensys, led by Christina Volkringer; Team RT Engineering, led by Kathy Woodall; Team Normandy Farms Fenway Fans, led by Marcia Galvin; Team GE Foxboro, led by Jason Bourgeois; and Team Boyden Library, led by Anita Walton, are “rallying” to win a visit from this year’s Rally Spokesplayer, Red Sox pitcher Daniel Bard.

When the Red Sox suit up against the Tampa Bay Rays on opening day at Fenway Park on Friday, April 13, Red Sox Nation is encouraged to Rally

Against Cancer to benefit Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and the Jimmy Fund. By contributing $5 or more to the Jimmy Fund, participants have the opportunity to “Dress for Sox-cess” and wear Boston Red Sox gear to work or school April 13.

The top fundraising workplace and school (K-12, college, or university) are each eligible for a visit from Bard.

In seven years, Rally Against Cancer has raised $2.5 million to support the fight against cancer at Dana-Farber. This year, the program hopes to raise $650,000.

For more information about Rally, visit RallyAgainstCancer.org.